WINTER WATERCOLORS IN THE WOODS: Jan. 8, 15, 22, 29

This session artists are invited to step into a quiet, magical forest filled with snowy trees and woodland animals. Using soft washes of blues, purples, and icy greens, kids learn how to blend winter tones, create snowy textures, and paint foxes, owls, deer, and rabbits.

MAGICAL & WHIMSICAL PASTEL DRAWINGS: Feb. 5, 12, 19, Mar. 12

Students will use soft pastels and oil pastels while learning how to blend glowing colors and details, while drawing whimsical characters like fairies, dragons, owls, enchanted trees, and other magical creatures.

I SPY...WITH MY BINOCULARS: Mar. 19, Apr. 2, 9, 16

A playful canvas painting project where artists will step into the shoes of an explorer. Students will paint themselves or a character, peeking through binoculars while discovering a world full of colorful birds, insects, or woodland animals hidden in the background.

BUG-A-PALOOZA CLAY RELIEF ART: Apr. 23, 30, May 7, 14

Explore the world of insects through texture, shape, and raised clay design during this session. Each student will create a decorative tile of butterflies, beetles, dragonflies, or ladybugs, etc.
